Dear all,

It has been another busy week which ended today with a chance for Melsonby children to visit North and South Cowton.

The children spent the morning taking part in a dress rehearsal for their summer production, trying on costumes, practising their lines and finding their best stage position. We are really excited to see the productions next week come to life on Monday and Tuesday.

Earlier this afternoon, the children and parents came together for our first ever Federation Sports day. It was so lovely to see the children working together in their teams, encouraging one another and persevering in their races.

Thank you to everyone that was able to make it.

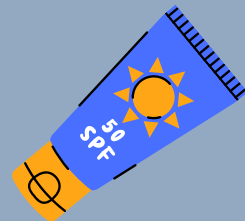

Have a lovely weekend!

Mrs Robinson and the Team
